Horatio Lynch - According to the Moulton Advertiser, the weekly Lawrence County, Alabama newspaper, on August 21, 1856 “Horatio Lynch, who was born in 1822 (is buried on top of the Copena Burial Mound in the Old Settler’s Cemetery at Oakville Indian Mounds Education Center) died at the home of Darius Lynch (1809 – 1898) and Nancy O. Gibson Lynch (the daughter of Colonel Charles (also a probate judge) and Clarissa McDowell. John McDowell was Clarissa’s father who was a Revolutionary War soldier that is buried in the Preuit/Gipson cemetery at Oakville. Charles Gibson owned/farmed the land where the Indian Mound and the Old Settler’s Cemetery are located and where his daughter-in-law’s brother-in-law is buried.

Inscribed on tombstone (crypt) - Horatio Lynch

Horatio Lynch who was born 2nd of October, 1822 and departed this life on the 15th of August, 1856. Died at his residence, half a mile southwest of Oakville, in the county, on Fri. last, Horation Lynch, in the 33rd year of his life.

Historical documents support that Darius Lynch was a Mayor of Moulton, Alabama. He was a brother to Horatio Lynch. They were the children of Thomas W. Lynch and Sarah Daugherty.

Darius Lynch moved with his father Thomas from Smith County Tennessee to Limestone when he was 8 years old. He moved to Lawrence County at the age of 21 years. It was on June 3, 1846 that he married Nannie (Nancy Gibson). She died a few years later leaving a large family. On the 10th of January, 1858 he wedded Mrs. E. A. Hunt of Limestone Co. He joined Enon Baptist Church in 1856. He was a member of the Master Mason in Courtland Lodge 37 in 1836. He was interred in a cemetery of unknown name that is located east of Moulton.

THE DAUGHERTIES

In the fifties there lived 3 miles southeast of Moulton, about three-fourths of a mile west of where Robert Y. Goodlett now lives. Aunt Judy Daugherty and her five sons: William, Peter, Thomas, George, Noble, and one daughter, Cassa. I never knew their husband and father, Uncle Noble, as he died some years before.

When my father first went to Lawrence County he taught school in the Pin Hook Settlement. Every Sunday morning Uncle Noble Daugherty sent a horse, bridled and saddled, and sent for it in the late afternoon. My father never forgot this act of kindness and a Daugherty ever received a hearty welcome into his quiet home.

I knew but little about Aunt Judy. She died in 1858 or 1859 but I was a visitor there frequently during the war.

7. VIRGINIA JANET³ DAUGHERTY (JAMES ANDREW², JAMES¹) sister to Noble Daugherty, (Source: Jerry Alan Powers, Byrd Allen White of AL & TX/James Daugherty of TN/AL/TX, January 5, 2004.) was born in Smith County, Tennessee (Source: Jerry Alan Powers, Byrd Allen White of AL & TX/James Daugherty of TN/AL/TX, January 5, 2004.), and died 1832 (Source: Jerry Alan Powers, Byrd Allen White of AL & TX/James Daugherty of TN/AL/TX, January 5, 2004.). She married COLONEL WILLIAM MASON HODGES (Source: Jerry Alan Powers, Byrd Allen White of AL & TX/James Daugherty of TN/AL/TX, January 5, 2004.) 1814 (Source: Jerry Alan Powers, Byrd Allen White of AL & TX/James Daugherty of TN/AL/TX, January 5, 2004.), son of WILLIAM HODGES and ELIZABETH KIRBY. He was born Abt. 1790 in Greenville, South Carolina (Source: Jerry Alan Powers, Byrd Allen White of AL & TX/James Daugherty of TN/AL/TX, January 5, 2004.), and died 25 Mar 1835 in Lawrence County, (Source: Jerry Alan Powers, Byrd Allen White of AL & TX/James Daugherty of TN/AL/TX, January 5, 2004.).

Notes for COLONEL WILLIAM MASON HODGES:

Per Jerry Powers:

Saunders "Early History of Alabama" says, "The Hodges were prominent in the first settlement of Lawrence County. Two brothers, Fleming and William, came together. Col. William Hodges was a member of the House of Representatives in 1828-29. His eldest son, Fleming, had considerable talent for trade and moved to Mississippi. Two other sons, Moses and James, went to Mississippi. Captain William (Buck) Hodges, of Co. F 16th Alabama was highly esteemed as a gentlemen and a brave officer. He was married several times and was terrible mangled at the Battle of Chicamauga, and afterwards placed upon the retired list. Another son, Asa, was a lawyer and served as deputy sheriff of Lawrence County, AL in 1835-36; he moved to Arkansas. Other children of Col. William Hodges and his wife, Virginia, were Margaret, who married a Price; Docia, married a Patterson; Elizabeth married (1) Johnson, (2) a Townsend, and Mary. A consort (spouse) of Colonel Hodges is buried in the Old Settlers Cemeter. She is Jane Hodges "departed this life 10-19-1839, about 5 years after her husband expired. Colonel Hodges was the brother of Fleming Hodges whose son, Fleming Hodges Jr. is buried on the mound. Fleming Hodges SR. was a state senator and a judge.
